EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Vishal Khatri on June 18, 2009. The application has been amended as follows:

Claims 28-40 and 45 are canceled.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-9, 11-27, 42-44, and 46 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

In a gel-process including dissolving a polymer in a solvent to form a polymer solution, gelling the polymer solution, and drawing the gelled solution at a draw ratio of at least 20, the prior art does not disclose or suggest dissolving isotactic polypropylene in a solvent to form the polymer solution and further providing one or more nucleating agents to the polymer solution. Furthermore, in prior art processes for drawing isotactic polypropylene in the presence of nucleating agents, the isotactic polypropylene is molten and drawn from the molten state rather than gel-processed as claimed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed March 27, 2009 have been considered. In view of the arguments and amendment to the claims, the rejection set forth previously over Smith et al (US 4,436,689 and US 4,344,908) in view of Kobayashi et al (JP 8-239386) and Carrock et al (US 4,184,026) is withdrawn.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Eric Hug whose telephone number is (571) 272-1192.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Steven Griffin can be reached on 571 272-1189. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
